Numb. 1972

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday October 9 to Monday October 13. 1684.

Turin Septemb. 24.

THE Troops of the Duke of Savoy continue Encamped between Ceva and Pioſſo; and we do not yet hear that any Orders are given for their returning to their Quarters. They write from Milan that by the Defenſive League lately concluded with the Republick of Genoua, the Count de Melgar has promiſed in the Name of his Catholick Majeſty to aſſiſt that State with 27 Galleys, 18 Men of War, and 14000 Foot, and 4000 Horſe; and that on the other ſide the Genoueſes are obliged to maintain 6000 Men, ten Galleys, and four Men of War; and to give to the Spaniſh Troops that ſhall be ſent to their aſſiſtance in caſe their City be attackt, the Poſt they ſhall chuſe.

Venice, Septemb. 23. By a ſmall Veſſel come from Cattara we have advice that Signior Antonio Zen, Proveditor General of that place, having cauſed 1000 Morlaques to Embark on ſeveral light Veſſels, with Orders to go and Land near Caſtel Nuovo, they had executed the ſame with good ſucceſs, having burnt ſeveral Villages where the Turks had lain up great Quantities of Corn and other Proviſions, and returning to their Veſſels with a great deal of Booty, and many Priſoners, after having obliged the Garriſon of Caſtel Nuovo, who fell upon them, to retire with conſiderable loſs. The laſt News we had from our Fleet, was, That General Morosini had ordered a Deſcent to be made at Condelle in the Morea with Six Thouſand Men, to diſcover what diſpoſition the Greeks living in thoſe parts are in, to caſt off the Turkiſh Yoak. They write from Conſtantinople that they had the news there that Buda was beſieged by the Imperial Army; but that they did not doubt but the Beſieged would make a very ſtout defence. The Prince of Parma, General of the Foot of this State, parted from hence the laſt week for Dalmatia, where the Proveditor General Mocenigo, as our laſt Letters told us, expected him with the more impatience for that he had put all things in a readineſs in order to the undertaking ſome conſiderable Enterprize ſo ſoon as the ſaid Prince was arrived. From the Levant we have advice that ſome of General Molino's Ships have taken three Turkiſh Veſſels in the Archipelago, laden with Proviſions.

Madrid, Sept. 28. The Duke de Bournonville, Vice-roy of Catalonia, is removed from that Government, having finiſhed his three years; and the King has named the Marquiſs de Leganez, General of the Horſe in that Country, to ſucceed him. The Marquiſs de Cogolludo, Son of the Duke de Medina Celi, is gone to take poſſeſſion of his Command of General of the Galleys of Naples. They write from Cadiz that five Spaniſh Men of War Sailed from thence the ninth Inſtant to the Eaſtward; and that the departure of the Galeons for the Weſt-Indies was fixed for the 24 of this month, if the weather do not hinder it.

Genoua, September. 30 The 25th Inſtant ſailed from hence the Expedition for Scandaroon; and the William and David for Tabareo; and the next day the Four Brothers for the Coaſt of Spain. The French Galleys are ſtill kept by the weather at Villa Franca; and the Men of War at Vada, being 35 Miles to the Weſtward of this City.

Vienna, October 5. Count Leſlie, who arrived here on Sunday laſt having had ſeveral Conferences with Prince Herman of Baden, Preſident of the Council of War, parted from hence yeſterday morning to return to the Army before Buda; From whence a Courier arrived here this morning, by whom we are informed, that the Duke of Lorrain marched the 25th paſt with all his Cavalry to attack the Seraſquier Baſſa; but that he having notice of it, retired in great haſte towards Alba Regalis, and poſted himſelf under the Cannon of that place; That the Duke of Lorrain who had followed the Enemy as far as Alba Regalis, finding he could not attack them there, was returning to the Camp before Buda; That in the mean time the Elector of Bavaria did puſh on the Siege; That the Works which the Turks ruined in the great Sally they made from the Town on the 22. paſt, were made up again; and that they were preparing ſeveral Mines; but that the great Rains did very much incommode the Beſiegers. The Emperor has appointed ſome of his Council to examine the Papers of Count Teckeley which were taken at his late defeat, among which are a great many Letters in Cypher which are Decyphring, and it's not doubted but thereby will be diſcovered his ſecret Correſpondencies. We expect every hour the news of the taking of Eſperies by General Schultz, the place, notwithſtanding the obſtinacy of the Rebels that got into it, not being in a condition to make any great defence; And we doubt not, after this Town is reduced, but the reſt that are as yet on the ſide of Count Teckeley, will begin to think of making their peace in time. The Baron Zierowski, the Emperor's Ambaſſador in Moſcovy, is returned hither, and hath, as we are told, informed his Imperial Majeſty that the Czars have a very brave Army on foot, and that he believes they may be brought into the League againſt the Turks if a way can be found to accommodate the differences that have ſo long depended between them and the Poles concerning Kiovia and other places, which the Czars are at preſent poſſeſſed of, and whereof the Poles demand reſtitution. The Prince of Saxe Eyſenach dyed at Presburg the 29th of the laſt month.

Ratisbonne, October 9. Our Letters from Vienna give us an account of the entire Defeat of Count Teckeley; he lay encamped with a Body of 7000 Men to cover Eſperies, being reſolved to give the Imperialiſts Battle in caſe they advanced that way; but General Schultz prevented him, for marching the 17th paſt with 4000 Men from his Camp near Zeben, he ſurprized the Rebels in the night, ſlew a great many of them, and took all their Baggage and Cannon, Count Teckeley himſelf eſcaped with great difficulty, not having time to ſave his private Papers; among which it's ſaid are ſeveral Letters from the Grand Signor. After this